Insights

The background of the image is a surreal landscape. It features rolling sand dunes, but the sand is a deep, vibrant blue. The dunes are covered in fine, rhythmic ripples that catch the light. In the distance, a bright, glowing light source, possibly the sun or moon, sits on the horizon, casting a long, soft glow across the sky and the tops of the dunes. The sky is a deep, dark blue, filled with countless stars of varying brightness. A prominent, hazy band of light, resembling the Milky Way, stretches across the upper portion of the sky. The overall atmosphere is dreamlike and ethereal.

Do you know magic?

Can you utter the name of your soul
and bring yourself back to light?

Can you speak your destiny,
create life for yourself from yourself?

From the light of your works
do you know who you are?

Thank you
